Applicants Reply in Response to Examiner's Office Action Mailed: 08/13/2004

Date of Response: February 3, 2005

Dear Examiner Legesse, Art Unit 3711,

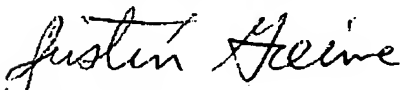

This letter is being filed this third day of February two-thousand and five, in response to examiner's office action as of August the eighth, two-thousand and four. I would like to submit this response as a bona fide attempt to advance our case and as such have amended the Abstract of the Disclosure section and Claims of our application as are found enclosed with this letter.

In response to the detailed action:

- i.) Specification: The Abstract of the Disclosure has been amended to fewer than 150 words in length and has been amended in content to better present the invention and claims of which we are presenting. This should cause this section to be within full compliance.
- ii.) Claim Rejections: I concede that original claims 1-4 failed to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. Original claims 1-4 also, if claiming the tossing game device, could be anticipated by previous patents such as Conville (US Patent No. 5,056,796). In response to these problems we would like to request to cancel original claims 1-4 and replace them with New claims numbered 5-7 and detailed in the claims page of this enclosure.
- iii.) New claims 5-7 clearly define our invention and adequately display our intention to claim the method of using the described projectile tossing game apparatus and not the apparatus itself. Thus this series of methods of use/play are unique and original to this invention and have not been claimed by any previously patented inventions.

We hope that this response will adequately revise our application so that it is in acceptable form and will be further accepted through the application process.

Thank you,
On behalf of Justin Greiwe, Nick Greiwe, and Jared Wagster,

Justin Greiwe
First Named Inventor
